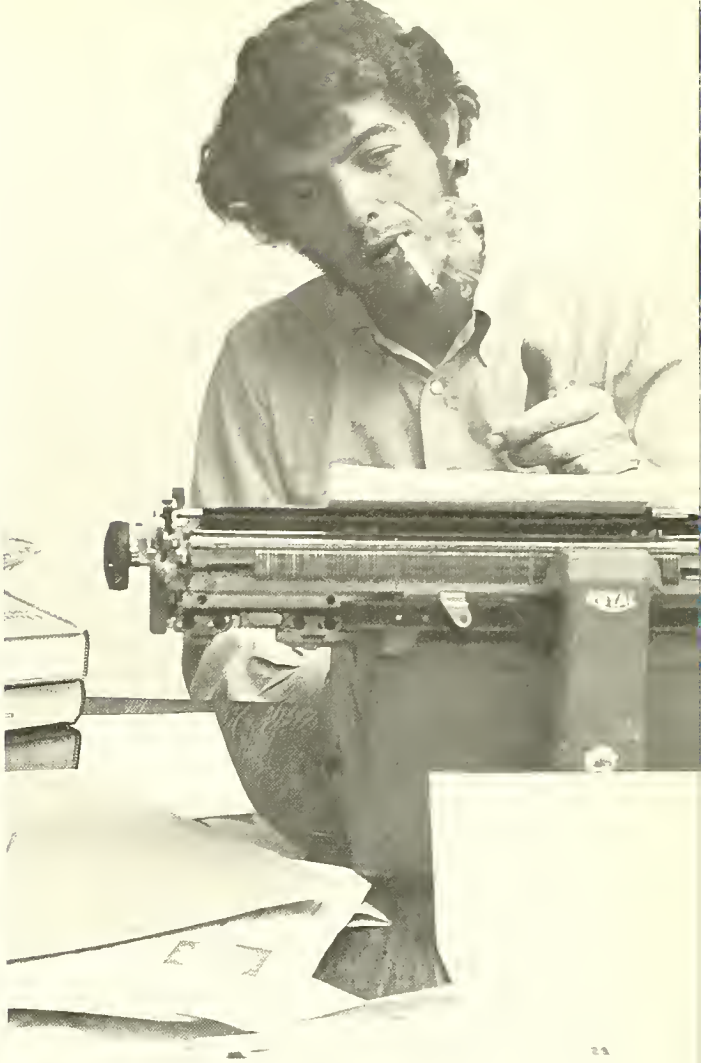
Acknowledgements

Now that all is done, I would like to acknowledge the people that made this book possible.

My deepest appreciation and gratitude to Miss Martha Hall and Miss Harriett Beasley, who helped me complete the annual when the rest of my staff deserted me. Appreciation must also go to my two assistant editors, Miss Linda West and Laura Murphy, for their undivided support. Who by the way were figure heads, that picked up a monthly check. I am greatful for the support and advice of Mr. Pete Galloway and Mr. John Groves, my two advisors, who kept me motivated in depress moments. The photographers, David Anderson, Jimmy King, Jimmy Watkins, Chuck Richardson, and Joe Neal, should be complimented on their splendid photography. Finally I want to thank Mr. Dan Troy, American Yearbook Representative, for his advising, planning and support.

Epilogue

My task is completed and all has seemed to end so quickly. Now that I can relax, I begin to wonder what I have accomplished. Throughout the yearbook I have tried to capture and convey the trying times, the good times, the hard times, the seemingly endlessly days, in a constructive time.

As you read and look at the 1970 WHITE COLUMNS I hope at least one page will be an enlightment of your days at Augusta College, because it was you who determined the events of the year.


David Maddox
